

Skagit River Resort at Bullerville presents a

House Concert

featuring

George Cole

Note: 4th Saturday of the month

George Cole's superbly crafted and melodically sophisticated original music reminds us of the best of George Gershwin, Johnny Mercer and Cole Porter. He is considered by many of his peers to be one of the top "acoustic shred masters." His highly stylized approach sounds like a cross between Django Rinehardt and vintage Les Paul. George's crooning vocals evoke the sound of early Frank Sinatra and Harry Connick Jr. His songs have a Jazz Age, Swing Era and Gypsy Jazz rhythm that will make you want to move your feet and get up a dance. Some of his finest compositions are slow exquisite waltzes. His music is known for its sophistication and intelligence, and is just not to be missed!

We are so very fortunate to have had George contact us to set up this rare appearance in the Pacific Northwest.
